

Whistler Pictures on View Here in Print Exhibition

Works of Famous Etchers in Large Collection at the American Art Galleries.

The Trowbridge Hall collection of prints, with some additions from other sources, is now on view in the American Art Association Galleries, and will be sold there on March 8, 9 and 10. It proves to be a well rounded collection, with interesting groups of works by some of the famous etchers and engravers in history.

The Whistler set is of especial importance, being headed by the Venetian "Nocturne," one of the rarest of Whistler-brown ink and bears a written commendation on the back by the artist himself. There also is the "Little Venice," signed with the "Butterfly" stamp. The silhouette of Venice stretches across the print, touched in with jeweled-like precision.
Among other well known plates there are a "Billingsgate," the "Soupe a Trois Sous," the portrait of "Bequet," the "Fidelity," "Rothschild" and the "Black Lion Wharf."

There is represented by the self-portrait with the fur cap, the portrait of Miss Emma Rasmussen and a long series of the famous nudes, by Felix Bunet there are many of his remarkable etchings, framed each with an inscribed "no marques." There are forty-five landscape etchings by Sir Seymour Haden, including the "Three Sisters," "The American Artist," whose etchings measure up well in this company is Donald S. MacLaughlin. There are twenty-five plates by John R. Mac-Laughlin, including the "Three Sisters," the "Great Jewish Bride." Other painter etchings are by Frank Brangwyn, Mary Cassatt, Danby, Lorr, Lee Hankey, Lalanne, Meyron, Legros, Mielat, Herman A. Webster and Charles H.
Shannon.

Among the architectural pieces there is an important group by Axel Herman Hug, including his "Burgos Cathedral," and many by Hedley Pitton. The engravings include plates by such famous artists as Barrois, Chaudet, Chaudet, Duke, Edelinck, Faber, Fathome, Houmou, Jaquet, Maxwell, Sygne, Straum, Vuscher and Waltner.

$16,890 AT SALE
OF ORIENTAL ART

Rock Crystal Jar Brings $360 at Closing Session.

The final session in the Lee Van Ching collection of Oriental porcelain, snuff bottles, celadon, carvings in jade, enamels, textiles, Sung stoneware, bracelets and necklaces and early porcelains, held at the Anderson Galleries yesterday afternoon, produced $16,890, making the grand total for the sale $16,890.

O. Fukushima paid the highest price of the afternoon, $500 for a Chien Lung porcelain rock crystal jar. A Peking bowl with moulded design, Sung period, sold to W. O. James for $170, and a Temmoku stoneware bowl of the same period went to the same buyer for $25.
Mr. Sutto gave $100 for a large carving in rock crystal, Chien Lung period.
Friday's session in the same sale brought in $6,200. W. R. Heaton paid $85, the highest price of the sale, for a Chien Lung carving in rock crystal. A handsome jade plant of the same period sold to Mr. Farquhar for $50. E. Edwards bought a large wooten jar, nineteenth century Chinese, for $130. A large famille rose porcelain jardiniere of the same period and place went to G. A. Eisler for $115.90.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lansing had a luncheon yesterday for Mr. and Mrs.
Albert Johnson of Philadelphia, who are making a brief visit in Washington.
The British Ambassador and Lady
Geddes were among the guests.

DINNER FOR PADREWSKI.
Henry Morgenstern will preside at a dinner to be given for Ignace Jan Padewski on Wednesday night at the Hotel Astor. The Civic Forum is to be the host of the pianist, and every national allied against the Central Powers during the war will be represented.
Herbert Hoover will be one of the speakers, and others scheduled to talk
are Jules Jusserand, the French Ambassador; Bishop-elect Manning, Mar-cella Sembrich and Mr. Padewski.

J. M. Gidding & Co.
564-566 and 568 Fifth Avenue. 467 and 471 E. 78

FOR THE
EASIER TOILETTE

THE
EARLIER EASTER THIS YEAR

HAS PROMPTED US
TO PREPARE

OUR COLLECTION OF
SPRING FASHIONS

MUCH EARLIER THAN USUAL

WITH EVERYTHING THAT ANY OCCASION

MAKING REQUIRE

AN ENSEMBLE OF FASHION
SUCH AS IS SHOWN ONLY BY

THE PARIS SHOP 'FAMERICA'

THE
DRESSMAKING &
TAILORING SALONS

ARE MAKING TO ORDER
FROM EVERY INCOMING

PARIS FASHION,
THE EXACT DUPLICATE OF
YOUR OWN MODIFICATION OF IT

107th St. & Amsterdam Av.

Branches: New York & Brooklyn

Call 2070 Riverside

107th St. & Amsterdam Av.

Branches: New York & Brooklyn

Call 2070 Riverside

107th St. & Amsterdam Av.

Branches: New York & Brooklyn

PERSONAL INTELLIGENCE.

NEW YORK.

The Swiss Consul and Mrs. Louis H.
Junod returned yesterday to New York from a week's visit in Washington, where they were the guests of Mrs. Davis Ireland, who gave a dinner for them last Thursday. In the company were the Minister of Serbia and M. Grouhich, the Minister of Cuba and Mme. de Gepedes, the Minister of Switzerland and Mme. Peter and Col. and Marchesa di Bernozzo of the Italian Embassy.

Mrs. Vincent Astor started yesterday for Bermuda, where she will be joined by Mr. Astor upon his return from a visit with his mother, Lady Ribblesdale, in London.

Mr. and Mrs. Jay Gould will give a dinner party in their home, 1082 Fifth avenue, March 14.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred C. Bosom have returned to 21 East Eighty-second street from Mexico, where they had been traveling several weeks.

Mrs. James Russell Soloy, who went to Washington to be with Mrs. Henry May for the inauguration, will return to New York to-morrow accompanied by Mrs. John S. For whom she will give a dinner this week.

Mrs. Charles Garrison Meyer is giving a luncheon to-day at her home in Bowne avenue, Flushing.

Mr. and Mrs. Wharton Sinker of Thornbury, Elkins Park, and Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Jenks of Philadelphia are at the St. Regis.

Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs, Mrs. Paul
Dana, Mrs. W. B. Duncan Dana and Mr.
Harry S. Black are at the Colonial, Nasau, Bahamas.

WASHINGTON.

One time Vice-President and Mrs.
Thomas Riley Marshall will leave Washington to-day for Holyoke, Mass., where he will give the first of a series of lectures. He will go on a Chautauqua tour, which will last seven weeks. Mrs. Marshall accompanying him, before returning to his home in Indiana. They have postponed their trip to Europe they had planned to make in May.

One time Secretary of War and Mrs.
Baker started for their home in Cleveland last night.

Mr. and Mrs. Josephus Daniels are guests for a few days of Mrs. George Dewey.

The Belgian Ambassador and Baroness de Cartier and the British Ambassador and Lady Geddes were the guests for whom Mr. and Mrs. Lutz Anderson entertained at dinner last night.

Mr. Andrew W. Mellon, Secretary of the Treasury, Mrs. Alice Mellon and Miss Alice H. Sylvester will be at the Washington Hotel until they find a suitable home.

Mme. Grouhich, wife of the Minister of Serbia, gave a tea and dance yesterday for Miss Vota Vesnich, daughter of the Serbian Minister to France, who is visiting Miss Adeline M. Oxnard, but will sail soon for Europe.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lansing had a luncheon yesterday for Mr. and Mrs.
Albert Johnson of Philadelphia, who are making a brief visit in Washington.
The British Ambassador and Lady
Geddes were among the guests.

DINNER FOR PADREWSKI.
Henry Morgenstern will preside at a dinner to be given for Ignace Jan Padewski on Wednesday night at the Hotel Astor. The Civic Forum is to be the host of the pianist, and every national allied against the Central Powers during the war will be represented.
Herbert Hoover will be one of the speakers, and others scheduled to talk
are Jules Jusserand, the French Ambassador; Bishop-elect Manning, Mar-cella Sembrich and Mr. Padewski.

J. M. Gidding & Co.
564-566 and 568 Fifth Avenue. 467 and 471 E. 78

FOR THE
EASIER TOILETTE

THE
EARLIER EASTER THIS YEAR

HAS PROMPTED US
TO PREPARE

OUR COLLECTION OF
SPRING FASHIONS

MUCH EARLIER THAN USUAL

WITH EVERYTHING THAT ANY
OCCASION

MAKING REQUIRE

AN ENSEMBLE OF FASHION
SUCH AS IS SHOWN ONLY BY

THE PARIS SHOP 'FAMERICA'

THE
DRESSMAKING &
TAILORING SALONS

ARE MAKING TO ORDER
FROM EVERY INCOMING

PARIS FASHION,
THE EXACT DUPLICATE OF
YOUR OWN MODIFICATION OF IT

107th St. & Amsterdam Av.

Branches: New York & Brooklyn

Call 2070 Riverside

107th St. & Amsterdam Av.

Branches: New York & Brooklyn

Call 2070 Riverside

107th St. & Amsterdam Av.

Branches: New York & Brooklyn

Call 2070 Riverside

107th St. & Amsterdam Av.

Branches: New York & Brooklyn

Call 2070 Riverside

107th St. & Amsterdam Av.

Branches: New York & Brooklyn

Call 2070 Riverside

107th St. & Amsterdam Av.

Branches: New York & Brooklyn

Miss Angela Moore, Daughter of Mr. John Bassett Moore, Engaged

Will Become Bride of Mr. Hermann G. Place of This City.

Announcement was made yesterday by Mr. and Mrs. John Bassett Moore of 27 West Seventy-third street of the engagement of their youngest daughter, Miss Angela Turner Moore, to Mr.
Hermann G. Place of this city. While definite arrangements for the wedding have not been made, it is expected the marriage will take place early in June.

Miss Moore is one of three daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Moore. Her father is a noted publicist and author of the American in 1890, died yesterday in Bridgeton, Barbados, according to word received at the polo association office here. Except that he died of a heart attack, his wife was with him, details
are lacking.

Mr. Herbert was 75 years old. For years he has been regarded as an international polo authority on polo. He was one of the founders of the polo association in 1890, died yesterday in Bridgeton, Barbados, according to word
received at the polo association office
here. Except that he died of a heart attack, his wife was with him, details
are lacking.

Mr. Herbert was 75 years old. For
years he has been regarded as an international polo authority on polo. He was one of the founders of the polo association in 1890, died yesterday in Bridgeton, Barbados, according to word
received at the polo association office
here. Except that he died of a heart attack, his wife was with him, details
are lacking.

Mr. Herbert was 75 years old. For
years he has been regarded as an international polo authority on polo. He was one of the founders of the polo association in 1890, died yesterday in Bridgeton, Barbados, according to word
received at the polo association office
here. Except that he died of a heart attack, his wife was with him, details
are lacking.

PHILBIN R. ORR MARRIED.

Weds Miss Florence Jewett in Ishawoon, Wyo.

Announcement was made in this city yesterday of the wedding in Ishawoon, Wyo., of Mr. Philbin R. Orr of this city to Miss Florence Jewett, daughter of Mr. Jewett of Ishawoon. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father Pellet.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second street. He served in the American forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

Mr. Orr is a son of Mr. and Mrs.
William C. Orr of East Ninety-second
street. He served in the American
forces during the war, and since coming home has been living in the West.

H. L. HERBERT, POLO AUTHORITY, IS DEAD

'Father of the Game' Is Victim of Stroke in Bridgeton, Barbados.

Henry Lloyd Herbert, chairman of the American Polo Association since its formation in 1890, died yesterday in Bridgeton, Barbados, according to word
received at the polo association office
here. Except that he died of a heart attack, his wife was with him, details
are lacking.

Mr. Herbert was 75 years old. For
years he has been regarded as an international polo authority on polo. He was one of the founders of the polo association in 1890, died yesterday in Bridgeton, Barbados, according to word
received at the polo association office
here. Except that he died of a heart attack, his wife was with him, details
are lacking.

Mr. Herbert was 75 years old. For
years he has been regarded as an international polo authority on polo. He was one of the founders of the polo association in 1890, died yesterday in Bridgeton, Barbados, according to word
received at the polo association office
here. Except that he died of a heart attack, his wife was with him, details
are lacking.

Mr. Herbert was 75 years old. For
years he has been regarded as an international polo authority on polo. He was one of the founders of the polo association in 1890, died yesterday in Bridgeton, Barbados, according to word
received at the polo association office
here. Except that he died of a heart attack, his wife was with him, details
are lacking.

Mr. Herbert was 75 years old. For
years he has been regarded as an international polo authority on polo. He was one of the founders of the polo association in 1890, died yesterday in Bridgeton, Barbados, according to word
received at the polo association office
here. Except that he died of a heart attack, his wife was with him, details
are lacking.

Mr. Herbert was 75 years old. For
years he has been regarded as an international polo authority on polo. He was one of the founders of the polo association in 1890, died yesterday in Bridgeton, Barbados, according to word
received at the polo association office
here. Except that he died of a heart attack, his wife was with him, details
are lacking.

Mr. Herbert was 75 years old. For
years he has been regarded as an international polo authority on polo. He was one of the founders of the polo association in 1890, died yesterday in Bridgeton, Barbados, according to word
received at the polo association office
here. Except that he died of a heart attack, his wife was with him, details
are lacking.

J. L. CHILDS, FOUNDER OF FLORAL PARK, DIES

Noted Horticulturist Stricken
While on Train.

John Lewis Childs, founder of Floral Park, L. I., and for many years prominent in the politics of Queens and Nassau counties, died suddenly yesterday on a New York Central train while on his way to this city from Albany.

Mr. Childs had stopped off in Albany returning from a trip to California, and a few days before leaving the Pacific coast had written to his wife, saying he was in the best of health.